○ Principal Report (Dr. J Bathgate)

The principal discussed some of the latest developments in the school. These include:

- Enrolment in BHHS in 2011 is around 1200 students.
- Staff changes: A new Music Teacher, Ms Desiree Sleight has been appointed and a new English Teacher Ms Anna Sarlej who is a university medalist and will undertake GATS extension work.
- Notebooks are being prepared for distribution to Year 9 students. Note that Year 10 and Year 11 students now also have notebooks.
- A second-hand bus was purchased by the school for $37K. The bus is air-conditioned.
- A Year 12 room will be built between the library and administration block. Final approval by design authorities is required before construction. Construction should take approximately 8 weeks.
- Presentation night was very successful.

School funding requests

Dr Bathgate presented the following two funding requests to the P&C:

1. The first was for the funding of jerseys for ruby league (20) and the second for soccer (60) for a total cost of $4,100.
2. Subsidy of $44 per student to facilitate Year 8 students watching the play La Boheme (the full ticket price is $71). The focus of Year 8 curriculum is on "heroes".

The requests will be considered by the Executive Committee at a later stage.
